

Bob Scherm

DIRECTOR OF REFINING OPERATIONS
U.S. SUGAR

Port Wentworth, Georgia

Bob is the Director of Refining Operations at U.S. Sugar's Savannah Refinery, working directly with each department to support operations and ensure goals are being met.

What do you love most about your job? What kind of opportunities has working at U.S. Sugar provided you?

"The relationships I have built with both current and former colleagues are what I value most about my career. Working alongside a team with shared goals and a commitment to success is the foundation of a rewarding and successful workplace. U.S. Sugar has provided me with opportunities to lead teams to record-setting achievements, contribute to major projects that improve plant performance and support long-term sustainability, and mentor future leaders as they develop their skills and careers. These experiences have made my time at U.S. Sugar both meaningful and fulfilling."

Why is it important to preserve manufacturing jobs in places like Savannah?

"Preserving manufacturing jobs in communities like Savannah is essential to providing local families with access to stable, well-paying careers that offer long-term opportunity and security. These jobs strengthen the local economy, support future generations, and help ensure that communities across our country remain vibrant, prosperous, and resilient."

Interesting Fact

When Bob is not working, he likes to spend time outdoors with family and friends.

